According to the infamous General Konstantin P. Petrov of the former USSR's senior brass, over the past two decades we have been experiencing a shift in global management structure. The previous paradigm of Scientology in management has been relegated in favour of the NWO. Essentially this means L Ron Hubbard's acolytes are being shunted out of line management and the various Masonic factions are getting a major bone thrown to them.

NWO Scientism Government Corruption Crime Religion

The former Soviet Union was spared the fevered pace of Western economic development. While it was easy to consider the lives of Soviets to be nothing more than a re-branded feudal servitude, their isolation also facilitated development sans overarching profiteering. The emergence of whistleblowers like General Petrov is testament to the presence of mind of the population. This psychological stability can be primarily attributed to a single source of RF jamming technology - the 'Duga' over the horizon radar system known colloquially as The Woodpecker. As alarming as it sounds, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics basically created a thirty year blind spot in the capitalist aspirations of the Cold War. This bought the Russian people enough time to develop a pragmatic belief structure that did away with the feudal ideology of the Czarist regime, yet prevented the assimilation of the Russian people into a what has become known as the NWO.

L. Ron Hubbard is broadly accepted as being a half decent Sci-Fi author. However the movement of Scientology has suffered from a negative image and several high level runaways have spilled the beans all over social media. It should be noted that like many 20th century influencers, Mr .Hubbard was part of the intelligence apparatus. His specific field was US Naval Intelligence and this could well account for many of the more outlandish claims made by Scientology. How veracious these claims are is anyone's guess. Most of them focus on the popular concept that humans from planet Earth are certainly not the only sentient lifeforms in the universe. After that things start to get quite elaborate and one could draw comparisons with the Vedic texts in the descriptions of extra terrestrial activity including but not limited to large scale warfare.

In stark contrast, the Masonic approach cares nothing for descriptions of the estimated 400,000 subspecies of humanity spread across the known universe. Instead it seeks to leverage a deception based paradigm which appears to have been born in ancient Egypt during one of the many reformations of Dynastic Egyptian society. It is somewhat ironic that the nexus of these societal revolutions occurred in Giza, Cairo - a part of Egypt which can be translated as 'The Camp of Mars'. More details on this subject are available in the articles Oh no here comes Mars again and also The Black Sea Diaspora.

The differences between Scientology and the philosophy of the Knights Templar / their esoteric progeny in Freemasonry are innumerable. However there is a tangible association when it comes to their technological and mind control methods. The old guard have relied on electromagnetic carrier wave broadcast methods to influence the minds of the human population. The Scientologists use a device comparable to a Polygraph detector to manage their members through various initiation rituals which essentially resemble those of a Roman Catholic confessional. However, both also use gang stalking and blackmail to deliver their short term HUM-INT goals.

The problem with these methods are quite obvious. Basically both deny the subject their supposedly inalienable human rights that society has extended to them. Mankind was (according to most scriptures) always meant to have free will. Throw in informed choice and self determination and what emerges is basically the backbone of democratic capitalism. A backbone which is, for the most part, an elaborate and highly distracting illusion.

The widespread RF based mind control being used right now all over the world is essentially a Satanic abomination. One which has created a highly profitable disparity for much longer than anyone wants to admit. The various delivery methods including ELF-INT, MAS-INT and SIG-INT are all military acronyms for a reason. Without the justification of military usage, the simple fact that listening in on (and directing) peoples thoughts represents a profoundly dystopian, apocalyptic and frankly end times type narrative. However, the Military Industrial Congressional Complex decided some time ago that such a disparity should be rolled out against the civilian population. Their justification hinges on control and security but this is merely a paper thin front to an egregiously criminal racket. This is the foundation of the NWO management structure and it couldn't really be much more insidious.

To obfuscate this grotesque reality, the Templars and the Freemasons have interwoven their insanity with the obscurity of the Abrahamic faith system. This affords a convenient straw man argument to defend the predatory behaviour of a cult of blackmail and usery. From the highly suspicious events that took place in the desert of Egypt thousands of years ago, to the equally conspicuous actions of an illegitimate Rothschild called Adolf Hitler. Questioning the actions of the NWO leads directly to being labelled as a 'Holocaust Denier'. The fact is that like much of WW2, the so called 'Holocaust' is mired in secrecy and narrative enforcement. Undeniably there were many atrocities committed against Jews during WW2. Incidents known as 'Pogroms' read as the some of the most brutal ethnic cleansing actions ever perpetrated by human beings. However much of the narrative surrounding the concentration camps has been altered to evoke greater sympathy and justify anything malevolent that any person or group identifying as Jewish ever chooses to do.

Augmenting this most hostile of defensive mechanisms are numerous historical expulsions of followers of Judaism from city states all over Europe and the middle East dating back across several millennia. Invariably these expulsions followed large scale borrowing from those calling themselves 'Jews' by the feudal powers controlling the city states. Even today, the Corporation of London operates a discriminatory policy inside the Dragon boundaries. The prevention of too much Jewish investment in the square mile basically created the satellite commercial district known as 'The Docklands'.

However insane the beliefs espoused by L. Ron Hubbard may appear, it would be difficult to compare his work to that of the thousand year Reich. Likewise it would be erroneous to compare Scientology to the Spanish Inquisition. The Nazis openly identified with a Teutonic Templar mindset. The Inquisition pursued the extremist values of the Holy Roman Empire. Tomas De Torquemada lead the international quasi-religious firestorm with a zeal that would be comparable with the most insane actions of Boko Haram. However it can not be ignored that both the thousand year Reich and the Inquisition shared a common goal. They both sought to eradicate a system of blackmail and usery. A system which has become broadly known as Freemasonry. This is the system employed by the NWO to control the global population and it stands unchallenged by any capable resistance.

The actions of the W.H.O during the so called 'Covid19 pandemic' can be interpreted according to the schedule of a truly insane depopulation agenda. The science justifying the depopulation agenda is as erroneous as the peak oil data that created the current devaluation of the fossil fuel paradigm. As can be seen in the site timeline, the near future will be dominated by attempts to reduce the global population by a factor of 16:1. In other words, for the NWO to realise their goals, fifteen out of sixteen people currently living on the planet, need to be eradicated. This has come about as a direct result of events put in place over the past several centuries. Most notably during the industrial revolution and the subsequent information revolution. Currently we are living through what could be described as another phase of the 'Intelligence revolution'.

With each dissemination of the technology required to directly control people's thoughts, comes another strata of information suppression. The vast number of the 'controllers' involved care nothing for the history of the technology. They display a utilitarian mindset which essentially treats ELF-INT, MAS-INT and SIG-INT as consumer products comparable to white goods. The technology was made available to farmers in the 1980's to effectively call cows in for milking, move flocks of sheep from field to field and probably used by other recipients to rig horse and greyhound races. The average farmer and indeed clandestine operative does not have the technical understanding required to disassemble the constituent components of the highly elaborate technological cons they are tasked with. This is a legacy that has endured since it was decided that the workers had challenged the creator. Or at the very least, someone or something pretending to be the creator.

Today there are literally hundreds of millions of people consumed with the task of 'scattering their languages'. They believe in their ignorance that they are part of some highly important work for the military, government, police or other intelligence apparatus. The reality is that these people are simply pissing their lives away. Literally wasting their own time, on their own dime. Along the way, toxic narcissism becomes the staple diet of a society bending the knee to borrowed authority. In addition, the municipal framework or 'Civil Service' becomes little more than a vehicle with which to predate on the general public.

Several articles on this site speak to this inorganic and directed shift into worldwide psychological slavery. The replacement of Scientology with the NWO is very much part of this directed shift. The fact that Scientology was ever considered a viable model for management methodology is utterly bizarre. But in the business of confounding languages, the more bizarre the better. However, compared to Freemasonry, the belief system espoused via the legacy of Mr. Hubbard appears to be well thought out, common sense. The use of delusions of reference as a communication medium is great for denying accountability. Anyone banging on about people reading their mind and communicating through obscure symbolism, is guaranteed to be written off as a hopelessly delusional schizophrenic. This is what has protected the Knights Templar and their offshoot of Freemasonry for the best part of a thousand years.

Today, the disparity between consumer technology and that used to direct the thoughts of the population has lessened. While there is undoubtedly technology which is literally centuries ahead of that available to the high street consumer, the mystique of radio frequency has been lessened by the rush to deliver psychometric telemetry to an eager consumer base. The NeuroSky products are one of a recent glut of products which facilitate the psychological control of technology using brainwaves and impulses. The information can be delivered using wireless protocols within the 2.4Ghz spectrum. This effectively transmits human thoughts through the local terrain of the electromagneto-sphere. This (in some bizarre way) correlates with the justification for remote detection of brainwave activity. Detecting and intercepting brainwave convolution interpreted by NeuroSky equipment would be considered 'offensive security'.

The fact that equipment exists which does not require any additional equipment to be worn by the subject, inclines the unregulated users to intercept the thoughts of an individual. Any antenna can also be used to broadcast, consequently the capabilities of 'Animal Use Only' sheep-herding equipment, now facilitates false flag intelligence 'gathering' perpetrated against humans. The MIC has been accused of torturing detainees until they say whatever is needed to justify another run on the taxpayer. The intelligence community have likewise moved into waging asymmetrical psychological warfare according to the same working philosophy. They require a perception of need for their surveillance and due to their unbridled growth, they must therefore create the justification.

There is another profoundly concerning aspect to the NWO 'management method' and one which spells extreme danger for the human race. The Rabinnical texts assert that there are six (or eight depending on interpretation) genders. These include several which are based on homosexuality. Logically, turning the entire planet into a gender dysphoric race of self doubters will do wonders for achieving the 16:1 depopulation target. Beyond this, the intersection between the population methods of the Chinese Government and the gender based mind control methods of the Templars / Freemasons appear to be directly invested in controlling the right to procreate. Already the Chinese Government has rolled out eugenics programs to control their burgeoning population. This is what gave rise to the generation known as 'the little emperors'. Since this generation has grown up, it has been broadly accepted that a nation of only children has not created the most effective workforce. However the desire for effective population control has not waned.

The Covid19 pandemic created an entire generation of children who have been the victims of a language deprivation process. The most likely source for the data which inspired this global atrocity would be the medical records of East Asian people affected by the early 2000's SARS-COV epidemics. The impacted generation are now in their late teens / early 20's and will have displayed key-stage cognitive performance issues stemming from an inability to speak the language of trust. It seems somewhat conspicuous that an alleged source of the Covid19 virus laboratories in Wuhan, China. Laboratories which are banned in the USA and yet were blatantly financed by American big pharma interests. While it's ultimately possible that L. Ron Hubbard was not just a Sci-Fi penning MIC spy, but also some kind of rogue virologist, there's precisely zero evidence to support such a claim. However, Dr. Anthony Faucci would definitely fit the bill, sans compelling authorship of course.

The British right wing groups have long espoused a hatred of religious societal control. Their particular beef is with Sharia law as practiced by hard line Islamic states. They proclaim an affiliation with 'Judeo Christian' values. However the average EDL, UKIP or Britian 1st aficionado is (at best() a lapsed Christian who does not observe the tenets of anything even approximating religious piety. It seems somewhat perverse that all of these groups would abide by a set of philosophies which are well beyond 'Judeo Christian' and are in fact predominantly focused on funneling value to Jerulasem through the Masonic concept of 'The law of attraction'. This funneling relies heavily on usery and even more heavily on abstract ritual practices. While they will denounce the concept that Freemasonry represents anything religious, they follow the rituals with a focus verging on Zealotry.

Scientology is known in the USA as a religious organisation and the brand is labelled 'The Church of Scientology'. This has less to do with worship and more to do with the fiduciary and fiscal advantages offered in the USA through the constitutional protection of the right to freely practice religion. In the UK, qualifying as a Church is subject to much more stringent rules. As such Scientology has no religious status in Britain and derives it's self professed credibility from their American, quasi-religious efforts.

The 20th century heralded a departure from religious control of government in most markets across the planet. Democratic capitalism became the model with which to measure any societal development. It seems somewhat ridiculous that the progress made during this time in freeing mankind from the confusion and distraction of ancient scriptures has been effectively thrown in the toilet. Instead now we are faced with pseudo-religion forming the basis of a social control mechanism. In simplistic terms, the entire planet is descending into a global toxic-narcissism cult which places a single mentality above all others. It is the fundamental tenet of a pseudo religion cooked up by arch Freemason Aleister Crowley:

> Do as thou wilt and let that be the whole of the law.

This is the exact same mentality that supported the money lenders in the temple, the insane practices of the 1666 redemption cult and even the genocidal atrocities in the former Balkan state of Yugoslavia. It also facilitated the rise of faux blackmail in politics. The entirety of the British political system runs on a mixture of real and fake blackmail threats. In order for the establishment to trust a politician (or even a low level unacknowledged operative), they require some form of leverage collateral with which to threaten or motivate. The Knights Templar historically favoured homosexuality as a leverage tool. Consequently, pretending to be gay has been considered enough of a leverage tool to permit entry to various political cliques (especially the Conservative party). Many of these mind controlled (and often completely fake) homosexuals consistently display extremely right wing views. It is highly anomalous that closet heterosexuals professing to be homosexuals would display such tangible racism and jingoism in terms of discriminating against immigration. However in terms of fitting in with the obscurity of the Talmudic gender categories, it couldn't be much more compatible.

This is but a single example of the profoundly contradictory philosophies being pursued by the NWO. Make no mistake, this is simply the continuation of the 'scattering of our languages' that has been going on for thousands of years. As such it represents a direct attempt to counter the rise of the New Age and humanity's transition into an age of reason. To make matters worse, the mindset required to follow these principles can generally only be achieved through the use of highly detrimental brain washing methods. In previous articles we covered the highly disturbing reality of MK Ultra methods of trauma based mind kontrol. As controversial as it sounds, this practice has it's roots firmly planted in the Abrahamic practice of circumcision. As ever the most simple observations carry the most credibility:

> If this stuff was any use to anyone, you wouldn't actually need to hit them over the head with it.

According to many prophecies and predictions, humanity faces an extremely hazardous future. If the Rosicrucians and the NWO get their way, the 16:1 depopulation process will move at a pace. There is perhaps some evidence of resistance seen in the following popular social media snippet:

1% control the world. 4% are their puppets. 90% are asleep.

5% know and try to wake up the 90%.

The 1% use the 4% to prevent the other 5% from waking up the 90%.
